| 23.08.23 | We are looking forward to welcoming all year 11 for their results day tomorrow, Thursday 24th between 9 am and 12 pm. On your arrival at school please make your way to the Hive. If you are collecting on behalf of a student, you will need written consent from the student and Photo ID. Kind regards The Heys School   |
| 23.08.23 | We hope you are enjoying your break. We are looking forward to welcoming all year 11 for their results day next Thursday 24th between 9am and 12pm. On your arrival at school please make your way to the Hive. Kind regards The Heys   |
| 19.07.23 | It is Sports Day this Friday (21.7.23). Students can wear their PE kit or their own clothes that are suitable for the activities. During the day there will be an extended break time and students will finish school at 12.15 pm. The Heys School  |
| 16.07.23 | We look forward to seeing the students back in school tomorrow for the final week of the school year. It is an exciting week with rewards assemblies, our rewards event on Thursday afternoon and Sports Day on Friday! #BelnToWin  |
| 19.06.23 | Good evening, Due to the weather being unpredictable at the moment. This is a reminder that students should bring their blazer to school every day. We will let students know on a day-by-day basis if they are not required to wear their blazers due to the hot conditions. The Heys School   |
| 13.06.23 | Following tomorrow's Maths exam students will attend a leavers assembly p3 and will leave school early approx. 12.15 pm. Following tomorrow students will only attend school for their exams. Please ensure they arrive on time and in full school uniform. If students would like to attend school for extra revision prior to any other exams, they should arrive at the time of their normal lesson in full school uniform. Any student who attends in an incorrect uniform will not be allowed to attend. If students wish to sign their shirts after the leavers assembly, please ensure they bring in a spare shirt. Any student who has writing or graffiti on their shirts prior to the Maths exam tomorrow will not be allowed entry into the exam as this is against JCQ regulations. The Heys School |

| 08.06.23 | Good evening. Today a staff member inadvertently set off our fire alarm whilst completing some work in a classroom. I would like to take this opportunity to congratulate our students on their outstanding conduct during the fire drill. They truly showed the Heys values and were a credit to the school and you. Kind regards Mr McKendrick.   |
| 22.05.23 | In order to avoid lost learning, students have been reminded to use the toilets before school, break, during lunch and after school. During warm weather, students should make sure they bring a water bottle to school or purchase one from our canteen. These can be refilled before school, break, lunch or after school. Students are not allowed to leave lessons for water unless there is a medical condition. Sunglasses are also not appropriate for school. Thank you for your continued support. |
| 08.05.23 | We look forward to welcoming all our students back to school tomorrow, Tuesday 9th May. Please support your child by ensuring they attend school every day, on time and in the correct uniform, in order to maximise their potential and achieve their best. We have another fantastic attendance prize draw at the end of the half term for students improving or maintaining their attendance. Don't be late be in at 8.28 #BeInToWin #AttendToAchieve. The Heys School                                   |
